Financial Solutions for Healthcare Professionals

Great news: Healthcare professionals can get great deals from major lenders. This segment is viewed as strong income earners and low-risk. Therefore, many lenders offer flexible policies, low rates and bundled products. But where do you start?

Call Breakfree Financial Solutions. Why?

Healthcare professionals are busy people without the time or desire to pick through complex financial options. We can access deals & packages from more than 30 lenders, and provide independent, expert advice to find the 'best' solution. We do the paperwork and deal with the banks!

We're experienced, with a combined 50 years in the finance industry. Dealing with financial jargon and impersonal telephone centres can be challenging – let us handle the load, so you can focus on your business.

Right now, we're offering a FREE personal consultation to check your needs. This no-obligation workshop will provide instant feedback on your options and we can do this outside working hours.

How do the packages work?

For approved healthcare professionals who are Australian citizens or residents, you can:

- Borrow up to 90% – higher than usual mortgages
- Waive the need for expensive Lenders Mortgage Insurance (LMI) in many cases
- Obtain discounted interest rates, not available to standard borrowers
- Have loan structuring that provides flexibility between tax deductible and non-deductible debt
- Your banking package fees are discounted.

Is your income acceptable?

Most Healthcare professional have non-standard income structures that are a challenge for retail banks. Medicare income guarantees, variable employment, self-employment or partnership businesses, can make it difficult to obtain competitive finance.

Let our expertise help you. We have strong relationships with lenders and can ensure consideration of your unique situation. Plus, our access to specialist loan providers provides a wide range of options to locate the 'best' financial package for you.

How Breakfree Financial Solutions can maximise your package discounts

If you have complex needs, we partner with specialist legal, financial and accounting experts, or can do so with your current advisers.

Let us help you. Breakfree Financial Solutions are experienced and independent, with the objective of providing a full-service proposition and professional continuity. So, call us today - we can help with the right healthcare professional package for you!
